

Expected Student Outcomes

A Doris Todd Christian Academy graduate should know, understand, and be able to do the following:

Critical Thinking

- Demonstrates complex thinking and problem solving skills.
- Applies learned skills to something new.
- Uses technology effectively and ethically.

Relational

- Establishes, contributes, and accomplishes effective goals with others.
- Shows effective use of time.
- Treats others with respect.
- Works and plays well with others.

Observable Academic

- Demonstrates acquisition of academic disciplines & skills at grade level.
- Communicates well both verbally and in writing.
- Develops and uses organizational skills.
- Produces quality work.

Spiritual

- Demonstrates knowledge/understanding of basic Bible doctrines.
- Communicates Christian testimony.
- Demonstrates regular church attendance.
- Make decisions based on a Biblical worldview.

Societal

- Acts responsibly.
- Respects and submits to those in authority.
- Demonstrate good citizenship to benefit the school and others.
- Demonstrates good stewardship by taking care of school property.
- Respects property of others.