Rules and Regulations

1. Please be aware that exemplary behavior is expected from all students. Violation of school/class rules will result in disqualification from summer classes. There will be no second chances. Doris Todd rules are available at the office or online.
2. No uniforms are required, but students may be advised of inappropriate dress as determined by the staff (for example, no bare or exposed midriffs, no gang/drug/sexual themed shirts). Shoes are required for PE.
3. Out-of-bounds areas and other school rules will be discussed on the first day of classes (parents are invited to attend). If your child is not present on the first day, please have them see Mr. Kuraya to get briefed. All rules are for everyone's safety and well-being.
4. Be aware that students and parents shall be financially responsible for damages to equipment, instruments, or other property belonging to the school or other individuals. Things are expensive. Please talk to your child about appropriate caution.

ETC.

1. College and high school helpers will be working with the students. If your child has any problems with any of the students, please let Mr. Kuraya know immediately.
2. Sandwiches, chips, and drinks will be available for sale during our break time.

Thank you for the support of your child and our school. For all emergencies, the school phone number is 579-9237. We look forward to a fun and educational summer.

Mahalo,
N. Kuraya, Program Director
